

NYF/Jun13/03

Ms Yeo Geck Hong
Post-graduate student
Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences
National University of Singapore

Dear Ms Yeo,

THE TRAIT AND STATE EMOTION REGULATION OF ADOLESCENTS AND THE INFLUENCE OF PARENT-ADOLESCENT COMMUNICATION AND PARENTS' EMOTIONAL EXPRESSIVITY UNDER THE NATIONAL YOUTH FUND (THE "GRANT")

Thank you for applying for the grant.

2 We are pleased to inform you that a grant of up to (the "Approved Grant Amount") or 50% of total budget, whichever is lower under the National Youth Fund has been approved for The Trait and State Emotion Regulation of Adolescents and the Influence of Parent-adolescent Communication and Parents' Emotional Expressivity.

3 Please note that the Grant is subject to your acceptance of the terms and conditions stated in the following documents (the "Grant Documents") via email by 1 August 2013:

- a) The applicant agrees to abide by the National Youth Council's General Terms and Conditions (the "General Terms"), which is enclosed with this Letter of Award.
- b) The applicant agrees to present his/her research findings at designated NYC platforms.
- c) The applicant shall, upon completion of the project, submit to NYC one hard copy and one soft copy (in CD-R Format) of the completed project report, data sets, the completed grant feedback form and all relevant documents relevant to the research project. This is to be submitted within two months of completing the research. The grant feedback form, report template and the statement of accounts template are attached.

Grant Matters

4 The first disbursement amount will be This amount will be credited into the designated bank account approximately 4 weeks from the date of this email. The remaining disbursement amount will be released upon verification that the Project was implemented in accordance with the original proposal for the Project in the Application, and that the remainder of the Approved Grant Amount is needed. In the event of funding surplus or any failure to achieve the Deliverables, National Youth Council (NYC) reserves the right to withhold or adjust the remaining Grant Amount.

Changes to the Project

5 Please note that NYC must be informed in writing of any changes to the proposed project at least 2 weeks before the project execution date (e.g. objectives, beneficiaries, scale, budget, etc). We reserve the right to withdraw or reduce funding if the project deviates significantly from the original proposal.

Publicity Matters

6 NYC's support must be acknowledged on all relevant publicity collateral such as banners, posters, brochures, circulars and mailers, etc for the approved project. A high resolution copy of the NYC logo can be requested through email. Please also include line "The project is made possible by the National Youth Council's Youth Research Grant" in your press releases for the project.

7 NYC's decision on the grant quantum is final and no correspondence will be entered into. Only rejected applications will be considered for appeal.

8 We wish you every success in your Project.

Regards,