TECHNOLOGY AND DESIGN

DSBJ

Don't say bo jio (don't say we didn't invite you)
Welcome to the SUTD family!
At SUTD, we share the good stuff - food,
subject knowledge and the latest news!
Here is your essential guide to SUTD!

SUTD CREED & HONOUR CODE

Written by SUTD Pioneers, Class of 2015,
Joshua Chong, Arron Li, Cherise Cho,
Khor Zijian and Seow Chun Yong

HONOUR CODE

As a member of the SUTD community, I pledge to always uphold honourable conduct. I will be accountable for my words and actions, and be respectful to those around me.

CREED

I am a student of the Singapore University of Technology and Design;
I believe in a better world by design.

I continuously hone my mastery of technology;
I develop the skills of my trade to improve the lives of people.

I express my ideas through design;
I forge my creations with ingenuity and perception.

I grasp opportunities that are presented to me;
I handle risks with maturity and courage.

I inspire future generations to follow in my footsteps;
I justly uphold myself with strong moral character and values.

I know that I am not alone;
I lead and support others to exceed expectations.

I must remain true to my word in all that I endeavour as a testament to SUTD.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

serves and upholds the interest of students. Members act as welfare custodians for the student population and bring students, staff and faculty together through effective communication. They are also the catalyst for student initiatives, encouraging spontaneity and breaking convention.

"Do you know that we have over 90 Fifth Row Clubs in SUTD for you to join? If nothing interests you, you can even start your own!"

"Do you know that there are four traditional Chinese structures in SUTD that are donated by famous movie star Jackie Chan? The structures are a few centuries old!"

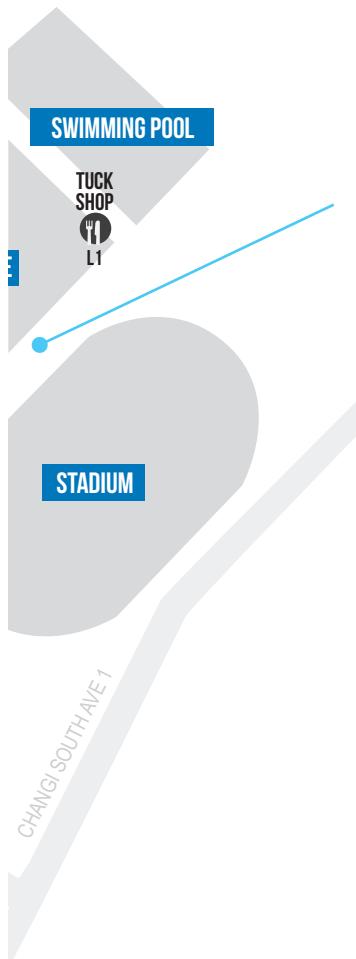

Here, you can find the most important offices and facilities that students need on a day-to-day basis. While the cohort classrooms and printer rooms at Building 1 and 2 are open 24 hours, the rest are not. So, we have the operating hours of all facilities here as well. Use them well!
